WEDNESDAY, JULY 3, 1901.

Connecticut is wisely resolved to protect woodcock, quail and grouse within her borders, and will not allow them to be shot or sold in the State for two years. Many other States in the republic ought to follow Connecticut's example. The protection of game birds and of all birds that are not predatory should be stricter than it is now in almost every State.

The building committee of the Central Presbyterian Church will meet on next Tuesday to select a plan and specifications for the new Church. Work will be begun thereafter as rapidly as arrangements can be made. The committee on subscriptions for the building fund received over $5,000 from the membership of the Church, and their friends will be asked to help increase this amount. The Church will be built according to the subscriptions received for that purpose.

It is about a year now before candidates for the various State offices will have to take to the stump and tell the people why their votes should be cast for them (the candidates). But, acting on the principle that it is the early bird which gets the worm, candidates are already beginning to lay their wires to pull in the various nominations. Perhaps it was the recent senatorial feud which started the hearts of various candidates to beating at a lively rate. But, any way, there are more actual bona fide candidates out working for nominations for next year than ever before.

The information comes from Washington that South Carolina, acting through the Governor and Attorney-General, has instituted proceedings before the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to test the question whether the State can be legally required to take out special tax stamps as wholesale and retail liquor dealers under the State dispensary law, and has made a demand upon the Commissioner for a refund of all such taxes hitherto paid. The State contends that the collection of such a tax is unconstitutional because the dispensary is a State institution, but the Federal Government contends that when the State performs a work and assumes direction of an agency which has been and can be performed by its citizens in an individual capacity, a new aspect arises. The decision will be watched for with much interest, and if the Commissioners decide against the State the case will probably go to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The people are drifting into the idea that it is not right to tolerate a difference of opinion in an opponent in politics and other matters. When it is ascertained that a man does not belong to a faction or the party they uphold, they decide to have nothing to do with him, and withdraw all sympathy and support, no matter in what avocation the individual with whom they may be engaged. Let a man strive to build up his community and there are those who are ready to pull him down because he won't see as they see and vote as they vote. Some people will not read an opposition paper, or hear an opposition speaker, while others are ready to go to Washington and lynch McKinley, simply because he does not do as they think he should. This spirit of intolerance is ruinous in its effects and dangerous to good government. It retards the growth of the country and discourages patriotism. It breaks down individual enthusiasm and destroys confidence. It tends toward the disorganization of society and the destruction of Republican institutions. It is opposed to freedom of conscience and in favor of ignorance and despotism. It was this spirit that drove Roger Williams from Massachusetts and caused him to settle the State of Rhode Island. It was this spirit that upheld the guillotine and deluged France in the blood of her ablest statesmen. It was this spirit that drove the Pilgrim Fathers to the rock bound coasts of New England and sent the Huguenots up the Savannah River to settle the province of Georgia. It was this spirit that led Charles I to the scaffold and Louis XVI to the guillotine. We boast of our freedom and independence and yet this intolerant spirit pervades the country and sits enthroned around many households in the land. Let us remember when we turn our backs upon an honest man because we differ with him that we by that act turn back upon the very principles of which we so loudly boast. An honest man's opinions are worthy of any man's respect. Let us be more conservative in our views and dealings with our fellowmen and make politics a secondary matter in our transactions with each other.

Lowndesville Locals.

Owing to the absence of your correspondent, who has been visiting friends in Williamston and Greenville, there have been no locals from Lowndesville in your paper for over a month, but from now on we hope to have some brief paragraphs for the readers of THE INTELLIGENCER every week.

The most important event of the week was the marriage on the evening of Wednesday, June 28th, of Miss Nellie Mosley, of this place, to Mr. D. M. Lipscomb, of Ninety-Six, the beautiful, simple and impressive service of the Methodist Church being read by the pastor of the bride, Rev. J. L. Daniels. Affectionate friends under the tasteful supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs L. Baker had decorated the Church in chaste and artistic designs, making a picture of beauty which was completed when the wedding party entered at 8:15. The attendants were: Miss Lillie Huckabee with Mr. Lewis Moore Lipscomb, Miss Mae Moore with Mr. B. Henry Mosley, Miss Addie Johnson with Mr. Ellis J. Huckabee, Miss Alice Allen with Mr. C. S. Starn, Miss Leila McCalla, with Mr. Will Lipscomb, Miss Lucia Hill with Mr. Ed. Brabham, Miss Ida Hawthorne with Mr. Will Moore, Miss Louise Johnson with Mr. Frank Anderson. The grand old Mendelssohn Wedding March was rendered with vivid artistic coloring by Miss Leona Blake, of Greenwood. After the ceremony the wedding party with a number of friends returned to the home of the bride, where a pleasant reception was given and refreshments served. The happy couple left on the 8:25 train the next morning for Ninety-Six, where a reception was tendered to them and their friends on Friday evening by Mrs. Lipscomb, the mother of the groom. The following party of Lowndesville people attended the reception: Misses Leila McCalla, Lillie Huckabee, Jno. F. Barnes, R. Henry Mosley and Robt. E. Mosley. Miss Mosley was one of our most deservedly popular young ladies and will be greatly missed in the social circle. Mr. Lipscomb is a rising young business man and one best described by our trite but expressive word, "nice." He holds the responsible position of manager and bookkeeper of the Ninety-Six Oil Mill. Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb will make their home in Ninety-Six.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Lillian Ainsley McDavid to Mr. Herbert Franklin Rice, which occurs July 2nd at San Juan, Puerto Rico. Miss McDavid is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. McDavid, of Due West, and a sister of Mrs. E. R. Horton, of this place. Several years ago she was connected with the Madrono Institute, Safford, Mexico, and afterwards held a position at Santa Barbara, California. For the last two years she has been in the Government Public School service in Puerto Rico. Miss McDavid is well known here, where she has often been a visitor. Mr. and Mrs. Richards will be at home to their friends after July 25th at Calle del Santo Cristo, No. 24, San Juan.

The Union Meeting of the Baptist Churches of the upper part of Abbeville County was held with the local Church on Saturday and Sunday with rather small attendance. Rev. J. A. Brown and Rev. Mr. Martin, of Due West, and Messrs. Brown and Stone, of Donalds, were among the delegates. The annual meeting of the Cokesbury District Conference will convene with the local Methodist Church next Wednesday, July 3rd, and about eighty delegates and visiting preachers are expected.

Among our visitors for the past week were Miss Pearl Sullivan, of Laurens, and Miss Margy Sullivan, of Summing Shoals. Laurens County, visiting Misses Eula Mae and Eliza Kay; Miss Addie Horton and little brother, Horace, of Clinton, with their uncle, Mr. E. R. Horton; Miss Carrie Thompson, of Varennes, at the Misses Bowman's; Miss Rosa Wharton, of the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. D. Cooley; Misses Ida and Annie Hawthorne, of Latimer, at Mr. J. W. Huckabee's; Miss Leona Blake, of Greenwood, and her nephews, Wilbur, Erskine and Lowry Blake, of Abbeville, at Mr. H. A. Tennant's; Miss Franklin, of Cokesbury, visiting Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Daniels at the Methodist parsonage; Miss Louise Johnson, of Anderson, at Dr. J. B. Mosley's; Roscoe and little Miss Leila Mosley, of Anderson, at Mr. J. W. Huckabee's; Mrs. White, of Greenville, Miss Bertha White, of Abbeville, Miss Mae Moore, Miss Tudie Hill, Messrs. W. N. Moore and Ed. Brabham, of Greenwood, at Dr. J. B. Mosley's. Most of these came in to be present at the Mosley-Lipscomb wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs L. Baker, of Washington, and Mrs. J. B. Franks, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. Baker and will be here some time.

Mr. W. M. Speer has returned after a pleasant visit to friends and relatives at Anderson, Clemson College and neighboring points.

Mr. Will Huckabee has been confined to his house for several weeks but is now improving, and his friends hope to see him back at his old post in the store of Jas. T. Latimer in a few days.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Broadwell died Sunday night and was buried at Midway Church Sunday morning, the pastor of the Baptist Church, Rev. J. A. Brown, reading the service over the grave.

In Memoriam.

Monday, June 24th, 1901, Robbie Everard, the sweet and dearly beloved little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Pruitt, vanished from a world of pain to dwell among the angels of Heaven. The little one was eleven months old, and during that time his suffering seemed unendurable for a little babe so long. All that tender, loving parents and skillful physicians could do seemed not to relieve his suffering, so the Saviour gently folded the little one in His arms, where he now is free from pain, and will sweetly rest forever. To the heart broken parents we know it is like tearing the heart from them to take the little one who has so long nestled in their arms and looked to them for care and protection. 'Tis hard we know, but we must submit to the Lord's will, who doeth all things for the best. Though the sweet little lips that have smiled and made the home sunshine and happiness and the bright little eyes that have looked into mother's and father's face so often are now closed makes life seem indeed dark and lonely, but knowing the little one is resting so peacefully you should rejoice instead of weep. The little one's remains were laid to rest Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the Baptist Cemetery at Starr, funeral services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Inabinet.

He had been appointed assistant secretary to the President and was to go on duty July 1st.

SEEK SUMMER STIMULANTS.

WE don't propose to hold Sunday School during the week, nor to open a sleeping joint at our place during the dull season this Summer. We haven't slept a little bit since Sept. 1st, but have kept things howling at a lively clip, and as a result we have doubled our business of last year, as evidenced by our sales-book. Now, we defy the dullness of Summer, and in making a new record propose to make one that can't be beat without hustling. Our Goods are all paid for, and are ours to do with just as we see fit. So, just to live up to the sleeping animals a bit we will throw our entire Stock of newly arrived—

Summer Shoes

On the market at prices that will make our unfortunate competitors foam at the mouth. We are sorry for them, but foaming is rightly good for some folks. They're powerful good and pretty, (the Shoes, we mean), but they've got to go. We can't bear to be so lonesome during these hot months, and if we can't swell the crowds at our counters one way, we'll do it another. When we say that our Shoes are of the best quality, those who have traded with us the longest know that they are up to the standard.

This is the Store you've heard so much about—that you can trade with us safely, even with your eyes shut.

Don't forget that we are the largest distributors of—

CORN, HAY, FLOUR, TOBACCO,

And everything else people and horses eat. If it isn't here it isn't anywhere.

The success that has attended our Big June Sale has inspired us to continue the Bargain offering for another month. We have made an entire change of quotations, and we will distribute to the city residents our elaborate Price List. We advise the public to carefully scrutinize every item on the sheet, and note that while prices were exceedingly small for the June selling, they are again cut into for the Big July Sale. The Sale of the past month has removed from our shelves thousands of dollars' worth of new Spring Merchandise. There are still many thousands of Goods here. It is our purpose to move the Goods. It is not our purpose to make profit.

You will find a most attractive array of prices for first-class Goods in the—

Carpet Department

Especially, which brings before you the grandest opportunity of the year to secure a handsome floor covering at a small price. The—

McCormick Mowers and Reapers!

McCormick Mowers have the lightest draft, the simplest gearing, the longest and strongest pitmans, widest and strongest frames, largest wheels and the most excellent and fine Cutter Bars of any Mowers on the market.

There is not a pin in the mechanism of these excellent Mowers in which any expert can fail to appreciate their superiority.

In case you go as in contact with stumps or other obstructions the Cutter Bars of the Mowers can be raised by a simple pressure of the trip with the foot or a pull of the lever with the hand, without stopping to throw the machine out of gear; after passing such obstruction simply drop the Cutter Bar with the Lever and the machine is automatically thrown back into gear and continues to cut as before.

We invite you to let us demonstrate some of the many others to you, and we wish to impress upon you the fact that there is no Mower on the market that will require as few repairs as the matchless McCormick.
